100 Great Paintings is a British television series broadcast in 1980 on BBC 2, devised by Edwin Mullins. He chose 20 thematic groups, such as war, the Adoration, the language of color, the hunt, and bathing, picking five paintings from each. The selection ranges from 12th-century China through the 1950s, with an emphasis on European paintings. He deliberately avoided especially famous paintings, such as Leonardo da Vinci's Mona Lisa or John Constable's The Haywain. The series is available on VHS

"Great Painters" is a basic art history text geared towards elementary school children. This hardback book is 158 pages long and includes chapters with titles like, "Florence and the Medici", "The Great Years of Venice", and "Fauves and Cubists". This book is an excellent introduction to art history for young children and I highly recommend it.
